School Bus Safety for the New School Year

As fall begins and school busses once again take to the streets, it's important to remember that safety around these vehicles is a little different than safety around other types of cars and trucks on the road. here are some tips on how to remain safe when you're dropping off or picking up a child from school or a bus stop, even if you're just driving past a school on your way to work.

Drivers should:

- Avoid blocking crosswalks.
- Always stop for crossing guards.

Children and parents should:

- Get to the bus stop several minutes early so they don't have to rush into the street as the bus arrives.
